Twelve-time GRAMMY® Award-winner and international superstar Shakira has announced plans to embark on her EL DORADO WORLD TOUR, presented by Rakuten.

Over the course of her career, the Colombian singer-songwriter and GRAMMY® winner Shakira has sold over 60 million records worldwide. Shakira served as coach on the 4th and 6th season of «The Voice,» NBC's hit reality vocal competition series that searches for the nation's best voice. Her tenth studio album "Shakira" was released in 2014, featuring hits such as "Can't Remember to Forget You," with Rihanna and "La La La (Brazil 2014)" which she performed at the finals of Fifa's World Cup 2014 in Brazil.

The tour announcement comes on the heels of Shakira's 11th studio album release, EL DORADO, which hit #1 on iTunes in 37 countries and held 5 of the top 10 spots on the iTunes Latino Chart within hours of its release. The 5x platinum album, including her already massive global hits - "La Bicicleta," "Chantaje," "Me Enamoré," and "Déjà vu"- currently holds the top spot on Billboard's Top Latin Albums, marking her 6th #1 album on this chart. Her single, "Chantaje", is 16x diamond certified, while its video currently has been viewed over 1.4 billion times, making it the #5 fastest video to reach 1 billion views worldwide and working its way to soon be the most viewed video of her entire catalogue.

Tickets for the EL DORADO WORLD TOUR go on-sale Friday, June 30th at 10 AM.
