Julie Becker appointed CEO of the Luxembourg Stock Exchange

Luxembourg 8 December 2020: The Board of Directors of the Luxembourg Stock Exchange (LuxSE) has appointed Julie Becker as LuxSE's next CEO and Chair of its Executive Committee. Julie Becker will officially take over the reins of the exchange as of 21 April 2021, the date of the next General Assembly, when Robert Scharfe, the current CEO, will step down after 9 years at the helm of the exchange. Robert Scharfe and Julie Becker will work side by side in the coming months to ensure a smooth transition.

"Over the past 7 years, Julie Becker has proven that she has the vision, competences, innovative spirit and leadership needed to steer the Luxembourg Stock Exchange successfully towards a bright future. I am confident that under her leadership, the Luxembourg Stock Exchange will thrive and further strengthen its position in the market and in the world. The exchange has seen significant growth and success over the past years under Robert Scharfe's tenure. On behalf of the Board, I thank him for his contribution and commitment, and congratulate Julie Becker on this important appointment," commented Frank Wagener, Chairman of the Board of Directors of LuxSE.

Climbing the ranks

Julie Becker specialises in regulatory and legal matters linked to capital markets. She joined the Luxembourg Stock Exchange in July 2013 and was appointed to the company's Executive Committee only two years later. She was further appointed Deputy CEO of LuxSE in December 2019. Widely recognised as an innovative sustainable finance expert, she founded the United Nations-awarded Luxembourg Green Exchange (LGX) in 2016 to facilitate sustainable investment worldwide. Over the past years, Julie Becker has represented LuxSE and LGX at expert forums and conferences around the world, including at the prestigious EU High-Level Expert Group on Sustainable Finance from 2016-2018. She is also the Chair of LuxCMA, an industry association dedicated to Luxembourg's capital markets.

About the Luxembourg Stock Exchange

The Luxembourg Stock Exchange (LuxSE) is the gateway to access international investors. With more than 37,000 listed securities, including 33,000 debt instruments, from 2,000 issuers in 100 countries, LuxSE is one of the world's leading exchanges for the listing of international, financial securities and offers a unique and integrated service offering covering listing, trading and information services.

In 2016, LuxSE launched the Luxembourg Green Exchange (LGX) and became the first exchange in the world to operate a platform dedicated entirely to sustainable securities. LGX has become a meeting place for impact-conscious issuers and investors, and has a leading global market share of listed green, social and sustainability bonds worldwide.

LuxSE also operates a specialist subsidiary, Fundsquare, which provides services to support and standardise cross-border distribution of investment funds.
